

BRIEFS

A Holiday Tradition!

New Online Community

BeOneCity.com, a new website providing a social, cultural and informative network for HIV+ persons, is officially up and running. Conceived by web entrepreneurs Peter Brook and David Purdue, BeOneCity is a technologically cutting edge website that provides a “one stop” online location featuring social networking, arts and entertainment info, and medical and legal resources/databases, health/medical FAQ section, and up to the minute news streaming live 24 hours.

Looking For Smiling Faces

The Providence Gay Men’s Chorus is looking for volunteers to help usher at our upcoming performances “It’s a Fabulous Life” at 7 p.m. on Wednesday December 5th, Saturday December 8th, and Sunday December 9th. All shows will be held at Beneficent Congregational Church, 300 Weybosset St., Providence. Contact Jonathan Beebe at: me@jonathan-beebe.com for more information (and please indicate which performance(s) you’d like to help out at). Volunteers get to see the show for free!

Call For Study Participants

A Ph.D. candidate at the Mass. School of Professional Psychology seeks subjects for a study of the attitudes and opinions of teens 13-18 years old being raised by same gender parent(s). E-mail Marjorie_welsh@mspp.edu for more information.

Art, poetry and music at Reflections Café

Reflections Café has announced that it has “changed its ambience” by altering the music it plays. On Sundays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. it will showcase the music of Patsy Cline, Classic French, Frank Sinatra, Billie Holiday, Miles Davis, Alison Krauss, oldies, etc. Afternoons “we’ll keep it gay” with Erasure, Abba, George Michael, Culture Club, Village People, 80’s classics, and the like. Night timers will hear classic rock and acoustic. Poetry night at Reflections continues to be at 7:30 p.m. every Tuesday. Local artists can hang their work on its gallery walls at no charge. Interested artists can bring a portfolio to the café for review.